Collect for TRINITY

Holy God, faithful and unchanging: enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Post Communion for TRINITY

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
 hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory,
 who are three Persons yet one God,
 now and for ever. Amen

Today's Readings

2 Corinthians 13 v11-13

¹¹Brothers and sisters, put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

¹³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Matthew 28 v16-20

¹⁶The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. ¹⁸And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

An Interfaith picnic to take place at Holland House

On Sunday 2 July, retreat house Holland House, will host its 2nd interfaith picnic. Last year around 100 people from nine different faiths came together to enjoy the picnic. People of all ages enjoyed a vegan buffet and English cream tea along with traditional music from the faiths present.

The picnic is a joint project between Holland House and the Worcestershire Interfaith Forum. Warden of Holland House, Ian Spencer said: "Our hope is to create an opportunity for people of faith to sit with each other and meet together in a very social way. It is also important for us to show that people of faith respect each other's tradition and that we get on!"

Haris Saleem, president of the Worcester Muslim Welfare Association, said: "It's really important for the different communities in Worcester to get together and understand one another better. If we have better understanding, I believe we become better citizens."

Faiths represented at last year's picnic were Baha'i, Buddhist, Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Sikh, Quaker, Unitarian and Muslim. Alongside the food and music there was also a bouncy castle and games for the children to enjoy.

Prayer Focus

Our world. We pray for all those affected by yet another terrorist attack in London. Extremism of all kinds is dangerous and senseless. We pray that people of all faiths exhibit tolerance and we pray that especially Christians will show their faith in this way. Let us not be drawn into a world of hate, but remember that our faith is based on love and respect for all of God's children.

Our nation. As we ponder the result of the General Election, we remind ourselves that some will be disappointed in the result. Let us all work for a better society and a better world, putting our differences aside.

Our community. As we move forward with our consultation programme with the wider village we pray that we will get a measure of the village's opinions and that they will come forward with their thoughts and ideas. We ask that all vitriol be set to one side and that the church can once again be at the centre of the community. We pray that the process will enable the church to take the correct decision for itself and the community.
