Easter thank you: To all those from our four churches involved with Easter cleans, flower arranging, decorating the churches with Easter gardens and to the graveyard maintenance teams, the churches all looked amazing for the Easter celebrations. Many of these jobs are undertaken by those that are not regular worshippers but go about their service to God quietly and for this we thank you. Rev'd Bruce Rienstra.

Prayer Focus

- We pray for Sri Lanka, for the various religious and ethnic communities. We pray that tensions between the communities can be managed and return to normal. We pray the government will find all those who were involved;
- We give thanks for young people like Greta Thunberg who have the courage to stand up despite their age, and force adults to take notice of them and listen to them. Jesus encouraged adults to listen to the young, their innocence is refreshing and as adults we should learn from them;
- We pray for the provision of care homes for people of all disabilities. Everyone has the right to a good quality of life and it is society's obligation to care for each other with dignity;
- Dudley Deanery – Rural Dean: Dominic Melville; Lay Chair: Anne Penn;
- Gothenburg (Sweden): Bishop Susanne Rappmann;
- Glasgow & Galloway (Scotland): Vacant;
- The Anglican Communion in Japan: Archbishop Nathaniel Makoto Uematsu;
- Cookhill Baptist Church, Rev'd Peter Cook, Minister;
- For those who live and work in Chamberlain Lane and Oak Tree Lane, Cookhill;
