Prayer Focus

- We pray for the young people of Inkberrow, Cookhill, Kington and Dormston. Whilst we are fortunate that there are many amenities (particularly in Inkberrow) aside from sport there is little for our young people to get involved in. Pressures of time impact the number of volunteers for youth clubs and activities. We also pray that the adults in our villages will exercise patience and understanding when confronting our youth, every adult was once a youth as well.
- We pray for all first-time mothers and fathers. We pray that they will find in themselves the courage and skills to take care of their babies. We ask that you give them the confidence that they can do this important task.
- We continue to pray for our political leaders. Help them to get a grip on the problems facing our country, to put their own interests to one side and decide to work for the good of the nation.
- We pray for the Bishop's Council on Monday as they continue to look at the diocese' financial situation as well as the other business of the diocese.
- Dudley Deanery – Rural Dean: Dominic Melville; Lay Chair: Anne Penn;
- Gloucester: Bishop Rachel Treweek with Bishops Robert Springett (Tewksbury) Jonathan Clark (Croydon) and Karowei Dorgu (Woolwich)
- Västerås (Sweden): Bishop Mikael Mogren
- The Anglican Church of Korea: Archbishop Moses Nagjun Yoo
- Stock Green Baptist Church
- For those who live and work in Edgioake, Bouts Lane
