PLEASE PRAY FOR:

Those who are in special need:

Michael; Gwen Rattue; James Nowacki; Betty Coughlin; Irene Fowler; Martin Gibbs;

Those who are thankful: Peter Curnock;

Prayer Focus:

- The Corona Virus is a reminder to all of us that personal hygiene is incredibly important. We pray everyone will remember to wash our hands thoroughly particularly when we interact with others;
- We pray that the research indicating a link to the wild animal trade in China will encourage the Chinese government to curb the unnecessary and cruel trade in of wild animals for food and traditional medicine. We pray that the virus serves as a warning to all;
- The plight of migrants is once again in the news. We pray for the 3.7 million migrants from Syria and the many migrants from Africa and Afghanistan. We pray that they won't be exploited by governments;
- During Lent we reflect on ourselves and our place in the community. Help us Lord to be good neighbours and look after each other. Help us also to accept help when it is offered;
- Pray for all those who minister across our diocese. That they may feel supported and sustained in their faith, able to help more people know the love of God;
- Kidderminster Deanery Rural Dean: Tim Williams, Lay Chair: Bernard Watkins;
- Kindu (Congo): Archbishop Zacharie Masimango Katanda;
- Evesham Community Hospital Chaplaincy (Andy Green);
- For those who live and work in Pepper Street, Rock Hill & Norbury Hill, Inkberrow;

Church/PCC related adverts for the What's On Magazine. We have an arrangement with What's on for an allocated amount of space for church activities/business. Can you please ensure that should you wish to advertise or put a notice of any kind related to any of our four churches that you send your advert admin@cofe-inkberrow.org.uk and not directly to What's On, so that the entries can be collectively submitted. Thank you for your co-operation. Rev'd Bruce Rienstra.
